

Information about Individual Credit Purchase Mediation Contracts (Payment in Installments)

Current as of August 2025 (AAM0063)

This document provides information about important matters you need to know before signing a contract under which you are to pay for a mobile phone or other commodities in installments (individual credit purchase mediation contract).

1 Please understand that certain information will be provided to a credit bureau.

Pursuant to the provisions of the Installment Sales Act, personal information about you as a subscriber (including your payment status, etc.) will be provided to a credit bureau designated by the Ministry of Economy, Trade and Industry for inquiry and registration at the time of your application for an individual credit purchase mediation contract and after you sign the contract.

2 Please be sure to avoid payment delays!

- ① Information about delinquent payments, if any, will remain on record at the designated credit bureau for five years from the completion of payment.
- ② Information registered with the designated credit bureau will be made available to other member companies of the bureau for the examination of applications. Therefore, any record of delinquent payments could mean you might be denied access to other credit facilities (installment payment contract for a mobile phone, credit card contract, loan contract, etc.).
※Please note that if you, the subscriber, are a minor and your parent, the registered payer, has any delinquent payments, that status will be attributed to you.

3 Please note that your payment obligation continues after contract cancellation!

The individual credit purchase mediation contract is a separate contract from ones made with au/UQ mobile communication services.

If you cancel your contract with au/UQ mobile communication services, you are still required to pay your installments until the full amount is paid.

※You can pay all unpaid installments in a lump sum to terminate your individual credit purchase mediation contract.

- The installment will be billed from the second month after your application for an Individual Credit Purchase Mediation Contract, by the method you specified* in the Application. If you pay at a store counter (including the case of the payment method being changed from the initial payment method), payment will incur specific charges which need to be paid together with the installment.
※If you hold an au/UQ mobile communication services contract and sign for an Individual Credit Purchase Mediation Contract, the installment will be billed together with the au/UQ mobile communication services charges. The billing may be delayed because of your au/UQ mobile communication services usage conditions.
- If you wish to redeem your immediate P discount/usage points to fund your purchase of a mobile phone etc. under an individual credit purchase mediation contract, you can use the points for the payment of the down payment and monthly installments. The use of the redeemed points for monthly installment payment will begin as of the first billed installment, and the remainder of the redeemed points, if any, will be carried over to payment of subsequent installments. The amount that may be credited by redemption will be limited to the amount claimed at the time of your application for the individual credit purchase mediation contract. Once the contract is formed, the credited amount may not be changed under any circumstances. The points may also not be used to charge the remaining price if you have selected the remaining price option. Please note that the claimed immediate P discount/usage points will be deducted in a lump sum when the individual credit purchase mediation contract is formed.
- Passing on usage rights of an au/UQ mobile communication service contract is conditional upon your having paid all the unpaid installments under the individual credit purchase mediation contract in a lump sum. However, when passing on the rights to a member of your family, you may choose to continue paying installments (this requires a specific assessment, so you may be unable to continue making installment payments as a result of said assessment). For clarification, if the au/UQ mobile communication services are passed on to someone else, the individual credit purchase mediation contract will be passed on to them, too.

Please keep your individual credit purchase mediation contract application and this document. (Once the contract is formed, this document will be treated as a document delivered under the Installment Sales Act)

(Contract Terms and Their Application)

- Article 1 The terms of an individual credit purchase mediation contract ("Terms"), which are specified by KDDI Corporation ("us"), will be the basis of the contract for individual credit purchase mediation ("Contract") between the purchaser and us.
- 2 The Contract provides for our agreement to pay, to the Shop (as defined below) for and on behalf of the purchaser, the amount remaining after deducting down payment from the total cash sales price ("Installments") of a mobile phone, its accessories, and other commodities (limited to those designated by us; hereinafter referred to as the "Commodities") specified in the purchaser's application for an Individual Credit Purchase Mediation Contract ("Application") which the purchaser buys under a purchase contract with the shop ("Shop") named in the Application.
- 3 We may revise these Terms in accordance with civil law. In this case, the Contract will be governed by the revised version of these Terms. We will issue a notification of the revised version of the Terms and the date such revision will come into effect on a specified website or through an equivalent channel. The revised version of the Terms shall come into effect on the said date.

(Conditions for Applying for Contracts)

- Article 2 An application for a Contract may only be made for the purchasing of the Commodities at our designated Shop.

(Method and Acceptance of Application)

- Article 3 When applying for a Contract, the purchaser is required to submit an Application containing the information specified by us to Shop.
- 2 In the case referred to in the preceding paragraph, the purchaser is required to present documents that enable us to verify the information given in the Application. However, this requirement does not apply if we use any other verification methods that we specify separately.
- 3 We may refuse to accept an application for a Contract if
- (1) the applicant has actually failed, or appears likely to fail, to pay the Installments;
 - (2) the acceptance of that particular application would result in the total number of Contracts, etc. concerning the applicant (this term refers to Contracts and Individual Commodity Installment Sales Contracts between the applicant and us, and those between the applicant and Okinawa Cellular Telephone Company (hereafter "OCT", and all together referred to as "Us/We or OCT"), as specified separately by us; this definition also applies below) exceeding the limit set by us;
 - (3) the applicant has actually failed, or appears likely to fail, to pay other Services charges provided by us or OCT or other debts;
 - (4) we or OCT find it otherwise inappropriate to accept that particular application; or
 - (5) we find it otherwise inappropriate to accept that particular application.

(Selecting an Installment Payment Option)

- Article 3 paragraph 2
- To apply for the Contract, the purchaser must make the payment pursuant to the preceding Article 3 paragraph 1. The purchaser must also select in the Application one of the installment payment options set forth in paragraph 2.
- 2 Installment payment options are described below.
- (1) Remaining price option
As separately specified by us, after the remaining price of the product is determined, the purchaser pays handling charges and the amount left after deducting the remaining price from the sales price of the particular product in installments until the installment payment is complete. The remaining sum is paid with the final installment.
 - (2) Fixed price option
Everything excluding (1).
- 3 If the purchaser selects the payment option specified in the preceding section 1, the purchaser must agree with the following sections.
- (1) Our Smartphone Value Program Terms will apply.
 - (2) If the payment period for the final installment set forth in the Application is extended pursuant to the Smartphone Value Program Terms, we shall register the extended number of payments as the number of payments registered at the credit bureau pursuant to Article 2 of the Rules on the Handling of Personal Information in Connection with Individual Credit Purchase Mediation and Other Credit Transactions. If installment payments are completed by early repayment or other means, we shall update the said registered information.

(When the Contract is Formed)

- Article 4 A Contract will be formed at the time when the purchaser's application for the Contract is accepted by us and notified to the Shop. If we refuse to accept the application, the Shop will also be notified. In this case, the Shop will notify our refusal to the purchaser.
- 2 A commodity purchase contract between the purchaser and the Shop ("Purchase Contract") will be formed at the time when the Shop applies to us for a Contract on behalf of the purchaser after the purchaser applies for the Purchase Contract. The Purchase Contract will become valid at the time when the Contract is formed. If a Contract is not successfully formed, the Purchase Contract will be deemed not to have been formed either, retroactive to the time of application for the Contract.

(Delivery of the Commodities and Transfer of Their Ownership)

- Article 5 The Commodities will be delivered from the Shop to the purchaser on such date after the formation of the Contract as is specified in the Application. Ownership of the Commodities will transfer from the Shop to the purchaser when the actual delivery of the Commodities is completed.

- 2 Even when the mobile phone subscriber (the purchaser) is temporarily off from the Designated Services concerning the Designated Mobile Phone Line, if the purchaser fails to pay their debts under the Contract, we and OCT will terminate the contract concerning such Designated Mobile Phone Line. In this case, we and OCT will give advance notice to the mobile phone subscriber (the purchaser).

(Changes Concerning Reported Matters)

- Article 8 The purchaser must promptly notify us of any changes concerning their name, address, contact information, or other matters previously reported to us.
- 2 The purchaser is required to agree that if any notice or document package etc. from us did not reach the purchaser in a timely manner or at all because of the purchaser's failure to notify us of their current address under the preceding paragraph, we will consider that such notice or package etc. did reach the purchaser when it should have under normal circumstances.

- 4 Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraphs 1 and 2, if the person who receives the assignment of the contractual status pertaining to the Contract uses the Commodities pertaining to such Contract for sales activities or as sales activities, you may request assignment of the contractual status pertaining to the Contract, with the condition of obtaining our approval.
- 5 Pursuant to the provisions of paragraph 2 or the preceding paragraph, when requesting the assignment of the contractual status pertaining to a Contract, the parties concerned shall submit a document jointly signed by the parties concerned to the handling office that conducts the contractual affairs prescribed by us.
